If you select "No", the uninstallation will cancel and the program will not be removed from your smartphone.

3.3 Improving the GPS reception

If your smartphone has an integrated GPS receiver, you can reduce the time your smartphone needs to find the first GPS position after switching on.

You can find the program "Quick GPS" if you navigate to "Programs".

QuickGPS is a program that reduces the time your smartphone needs to find the first GPS position after switching on. The program downloads current satellite data (Almanac data) from the internet.

Launch the program "Quick GPS".

Start the download of the satellite data by clicking "Download".
